

Poem Level Meter

Start filling in here and work your way up with each new example from the poem.

these “word pictures” images, sensory descriptions, and non-literal language (Sensory Level)	these sounds and patterns of sounds across the poem (Sonic Level)	these visual arrangements of words on the page, their font style, and spacing (Visual Level)	these ideas and how they evolve from the beginning to end of the poem (Ideational Level)

1. Which level or levels is/are dominant in the poem? _____
2. Describe any connection you see between levels: _____
